WEATHER FORECAST

NIGHT AND WEDNESDAY; NOT MUCH CHANGE IN TEMPERA-

NEW PRESIDENT INAUGURATED

WILSON TAKES OATH OF OFFICE

Woodrow Wilson and Thomas R. Marshall Inducted Into Office With Impressive Ceremonies Marked By Simplicity and Dignity-Chief Justice White Repeats Oath at 1:35 to New Chief Executive of Nation

PRESIDENTIAL SALUTE BOOMS OUT NEWS

Elaborate Program of the Day Covers Five Hours Amid Scenes of Stirring Animation and Spectacular Display-Great Concourse of Distinguished Men of the Nation, Army and Navy in Line-Street Pageant Climax monics of Inauguration day follow in arise to join the incoming president the main a fixed program, subject to at breakfast. He are it alone in his unforeseen circumstances and delays. The principal events are scheduled as half an hour after he had arisen was Preliminary Morning Events. About 10:30 a. m.—President-elect Wilson and Vice President-elect Marshall are escorted from their hotel to capitol the White House by the inaugural

President-elect Marshall drive from fore breakfast. He joined Mrs work of the Sixty-second congress. Inauguration of Vice President in Senate Chamber. 11:30 to 11:55 a. m .- Ambassadors and ministers, justices of the supreme court, speaker and members of the representatives, the president, president-elect and vice presideut-elect assemble in senate cham-

12. noon-Vice President About Marshall takes oath of office, administreed by Senator Gallinger, president pro tem of senate Sixty-second congress, and Immediate reconvening of the new senate with prayer by the chaplain.

About 12:10 p. m.-Vice President About 12:20 p. m.-Vice President

Marshall swears in new senators. Senate takes recess.

Inauguration of President in Front

Chief Justice White.

About 12:45 p. m-President Wilson delivers inaugural address. returns to White House

Inauguration Parade. About 1:30 p. m.-Parade starts from capitol. m.-President Wilson reviews 2 p. m.—President Wilson reviews "Good morning, gentlemen," returnparade from president's stand in ed Mr. Bryan, and then he went to front of White House.

The carriages and their escorts ed the very edges of the inaugural The fireworks display tonight probparade from president's stand in ed Mr. Bryan, and then he went to whirled up to the main entrance of stand, the military preserving their ably will be the most claborate ever front of White House.

3 to 3:30 p. m - Parade disbands. It will be noted that there is lull in the exercises from about 11 a. m. until noon, during which time Presi- an Mr. Wilson met the newspaper cor-darkened the sun and threatened to tra session would be ready by April precede the prediction of "unsettled 1, but added that the date was subweather" tonight, but the sun later ject to change, broke through the clouds at intervals At that time for a minute or two. With the tem-perature at 45 degrees a light wind tyes Rucker, McKinley and Garrett, Taft Greets perature at 45 degrees a light wind tives Rucker, ackingly and Garrett, fanned the city but no such discomforts as attended the inauguration of the ceremonies, arrived to take Mr. of the ceremonies, arrived to take Mr. blizzard of four years ago was threat-Wilson and Mr. Marshall to the White Mr. Taft turned to the president-elect Wilson raised his hand to take the cath of office. House.

Daylight found things moving swiftly toward the climax of the day's pro-gram—the inauguration ceremonies at to the White House office to deterthe east front of the capitol.

Crowd Waits for Wilson. Just after 8 o'clock a pair of shoes announced last night.

which had reposed all night outside personal party that he had arisen for drive to the White House.

It is his custom to leave his shoes along as their escorts outside at night to be polished. of Princeton and Virginia of P

Washington, Mar. 4 .- The cere-, Mrs. Wilson and daughters did no ready for the day's events. ly nothing was scheduled for his at-tention before the departure for the White House to begin the ride to the committee of congress.

About 11 a. m.—President Taft, sleep, was discovered by White House President-elect Wilson and Vice attendants at work in his study be-President Taft, after a few hours the White House to the capitol, ac- and Miss Helen just before 9 o'clock companied by the cabinet and an in the private dining room for break scort. fast. Three hours before the cere-11 a. m. to noon-President Taft monles at the capitol were scheduled passes on bills, etc., in the closing to begin the entire east front wa packed with a crowd which seemed to be patient, good natured and content to walt.

Scenes about the Shoreham hotel and the White House became more active as the morning were on. Princeton students and University of was to pass on his way to the White House, began arriving.

Troop Escort. The noted Essex troop, Mr. Wil- ning of the drive to the capitolson's escort, and the Culver Black Horse troop, Mr. Marshall's escort, appeared forms of the riders and their mettlesome horses lent an air of action.

Mr. Wilson instructed his secretary, About 12 10 p. m.—Vice President
Mr. Tumulty, to learn at what time it Marshall delivers his inaugural adwould be proper to transmit his cabinet nominations to the senate. The net nominations to the senate. The incoming president planned to send in President Taft and Mr. Wilson, Mr. the names today.
William Jennings Bryan, who is sla-

About 12 30 p. m.—Procession from senate chamber to platform at east chamber to platfo ted to be secretary of state, called Bacon, early with William F. McCombs, the About 12:40 p m.—President WilMr. Wilson's room. When Mr. Bryan son takes oath of office, administered came out of Mr. Wilson's room he held in his hand one of the ten invitations which have been issued to the new cabinet members, providing places for About 1:15 p. m .- President party them in the senate chamber today. Bryan Greeted as Secretary.

"Good morning, Mr. Secretary," cried a chorus of voices as the distinctive envelope was seen. "Good morning, gentlemen," return-call on Mr. Marshall, who has a suite in the same hotel.

Wilson Meets Newspaper Men. After his conference with Mr. Bry dent Taft is occupied with the con-respondents. He was wearing a frock cluding work of congress coat and a rose colored tie. He said inauguration day dawned cold and he had been informed by congression-A black bank of heavy clouds al leaders that the business of the ex-

At that time Senators Crane, Ba-

Cabinet Not Announced

to the White House office to determine when President Wilson's nominations should be sent to the source.

The two men passed inside, and as mine when President Wilson's nomithey did so Mr. Taft espied Mr. BryWomen Deeply Interested. nations should be sent to the senate. About the Shoreham hotel, where It was decided, as the senate would him to enter.

Wilson was stopping, a small not be in session immediately after "I don't kn 9:45 a. m. Mr. Wilson and Mr.

The Evening Newspaper Is Studied for Buying Opportunties

The evening newspaper GOES HOME WITH either the man or paper GOES AWAY FROM HOME with the same man or woman, at whose door it has been delivered

-goes to office, or store, or factory-to be thrown aside as soon woman who buys it—the morning as the day's cares loom up, and the day's work begins. The evenpaper is studied after dinner, for "bargains," for buying opportunities of all sorts.

Top left, Chief Justice of the U.S. Supreme Court, who administered the oath of office to President Wilson; top right, parade at Roosevelt inauguration; bottom, left to right, White House, Thomas R. Marshall and Woodrow Wilson.

ines on either side of the street, fell hands, bringing more applause from had memorized much of the address, pay annoying visits. Chief Flyan, of in behind the procession and followed the crowd.
It to the White House. Applause

Princeton students and University of Virginia students, who were to form the line between which Mr. Wilson was to pass on his way to the White. Nassau." The party soon passed into the White House to await the begin-ident Wilson as governor of New Jer tion place of dignituries.

Brief Stay in White House The stay in the White House was its approval by cheers. brief. At 10:15 the ride to the capisentative Rucker also rode there. In the third carriage came Representatives McKniley and Garrett. The Wilson girls joined them. "Oh, isn't it wonderful?" said Mrs. Wilson as she looked out over the important tives McKniley and Garrett. The Wilson as she looked out over the important probability and the control of the firework committee having in charge the program for the blaze of glory which to might, if the weather is favorable, will be controlled the members of the firework committee having in charge the program for the blaze of glory which to might, if the weather is favorable, will be controlled them. streets were packed and President mense gathering which extended so mark the end of President Wilson's Taft and Mr. Wilson gave their acknowledgements to roars of cheers Vice President Marshall's carriage followed immediately and close behind marched the White House correspondents and the newspaper men who hats flags and coats neward in the beneath fall above the marched the white House correspondents and the newspaper men who hats flags and coats neward in the beneath fall above to mark the end of President Wilson's inauguration day.

Professor Willis L. Moore, chief weather forecaster, had not given much encouragement. While he predicted that the parade would march dents and the newspaper men who hats, flags and coats upward in the beneath fair skies, he the capitol to the greetings of the places with difficulty into all available spaces.

President Tatt and Mr. Wilson were at once escorted to the president's cluded all but James C. McReynolds, the flag as now designs room, where Mr. Taft at once took up the work of signing bills. Mr. Marshall went to the vice president's to be present. President Taft, who room, accompanied by members of the had sat with a good natured smile and said: Well, Mr. President, here's your an outside in the corridor and invited crowd, kept at a distance by police. Mr. Wilson takes the oath, the nomination waited for a glimpse of the new president as he started on his way.

Taft Greets Wilson,

The cabinet slate, however, stands as "Well, I'm still president," returned In a moment her daughter Margin

Mr. Bryan entered. rive to the White House. ors ran about in little groups to reThe Culver and Essex troops trotted lieve the tedium, while the president Leutemant Comm s along as their escorts. The students tial party slowly assembled. The east naval aide at the White House, placed of Princeton and Virginia, in long front of the capitol, sweeping down chairs for the other women and they from the dome to the ground and out stood on tip toe for a near view of the far as the congressional library proceedings. and neighboring apartment buildings. presented a brilliant scene of color, eving his address, the first van load. The weather still was cloudy, but of the Wilson family's belongings

> Champ Clark Cheered. A burst of applause and cheers and several of the line of house members.

Applause came from the crowds the manuscript Taft Welcomes Party.

The party whirled up the drive to find President Taft waiting to welling into a larger volume as Wilcome the incoming president and vice liam Jennings Bryan, who came for

Mr. Bryan, Mr. McAdoo, Mr. Mar plicity, escorted him to the east room tine, Representative Burleson, Frank-of the White House, instead of the lin K. Lane, Representative William blue room, which is the formal recep- B. Wilson, Professor Houston and the others of the new cabinet were escerted to seats as the crowd voiced

Mrs. Wilson and Mrs. Marshall.

Mrs. Wilson and her daughters took had been with Mr. Wilson in the cam-direction of the president-elect. In a stake his official reputation on the moment a dense sea of people touch- evening conditions on every point of vantage or packed son," and a good natured laugh went modern mechanical surprises, there committee, and was met by President his face as the crowd surged about, burst into a hearty laugh when some one yelled, "Where is Teddy"

It was 1:34 o'clock Cheers which greeted the rising fell to a hush as the chief justice re-

Mrs. Wilson, scated on a lower level, climbed on a chair at the edge 'I don't know whether I can come of the platform and peered up at her ter the chief justice at 1:35 o'clock. "Well, I'm still president," returned In a moment her daughter Margaret Mr. Taft, "and I invite you in." pulled another chair forward and pulled another chair forward and joined her. A moment later as Pres of Mr. Wilson's door disappeared. Marshall, accompanied by the con-and this indicated to members of his gressional committee, began the short and the West Point cadets and sail dress Mrs. Marshall joined them and A mild wind blew over the stands ident Wilson began his inaugural ad-

While President Wilson was delivthere was no immediate indication of reached the Wilson family's belongings rain. Princeton. There were seven trunks. eleven suit cases, eleven umbrella greeted Champ Clark as he passed also reached the White House a large on to the inaugural stand at the head cake which graced the Wilson dinner table last evening. It was surmount Major General Wood directed the ed by a brown donkey and a purple

he adhered closely to the reading on the secret service, early today drew

Sky Promise For To-

Taft occupying the right hand seat.

With them were Senators Crane and Mrs. Wilson's request the left. At Mrs. Wilson's request day a little knot of men appeared in the mail behind the White House and In the second carriage Mr. Martin The two women walked forward to anxiously scanned the skies. They sat at Mr. Overman's right. Reprecommittee having in charge the pro-"Oh, isn't it wonderful?" said Mrs. gram for the blaze of glory which to-massed multitude in the stands and Somebody in the crowd shouted; the official program, in addition to the less fortunate who were perched "Three cheers for Miss Nellie Wil- the discharge of bombs with many will be a number of "set pieces to all available spaces. up

President Taft and Mr. Wilson were

The Wilson cabinet on the stand including an elaborate reproduction of the fing as now designed. the fireworks are described in the

The polychromatic canopy The canopy of translucent glory. Bayonet tour billions.

Pyrotechnic cuttlefish. Colored aero lights. Prize asteroids. Crescendo repeating bombs Toward the close of the fireworks display one gigantic bomb will be flung high in the air, which on ex-ploding will show in letters of fire the name of Wilson almost immediately afterward a second bomb of like caliber will be sent aloft which in turn fling out the name Marshall. Elaborate arrangements have been made to care for one of the biggest portfolio by President Taft. crowds that ever has gathered at

Extra Precautions Taken, All Sightseers Stopped at Gates

Major General Wood directed the closing in of the troops before the clephant.

Washington, Mar. 4.—The White Foundating in of the troops before the clephant.

Washington, Mar. 4.—The White Foundation of the troops before the clephant.

President Wilson's voice at first crowds gradually edged toward the inaugural platform.

Speaker Clark leaned toward Prestional Capital and the raised it be secured close attentional capital and the fear that small hat to match. Miss Margaret will shoot off for the military school tonal capital and the fear that small hat to match. Miss Margaret will shoot off for the military school tonal capital and the fear that small hat to match. Miss Margaret will shoot off for the military school tonal capital and the fear that small hat to match. Miss Margaret will shoot off for the military school tonal capital and the fear that small hat to match. Miss manifold the crowds will shoot off for the military school tonal capital and the fear that small hat to match. Miss manifold the crowds will shoot off for the military school tonal capital and the fear that small hat to match. Miss manifold the crowds will shoot off for the military school tonal capital and the fear that small hat to match. Miss manifold the crowds will shoot off for the military school tonal capital and the fear that small hat to match. Wiscon were at an cloth dress.

Bordentown and Wentworth now will shoot off for the military school tonal capital and the fear that small hat to match. Miss manifold the crowds will shoot off for the military school tonal capital and the fear that small hat to match. Miss manifold the condition will be seened to the condition that the cloth dress are capital than capital the second probably levels and the fear that small hat to match. Miss manifold the condition that the condition th around the grounds a cordon of guards who stopped sightneers at the gates. None but those who actually had business at the White House were permitted to pass.

the suggestion of President. around the historic mansion, but it protection was left to the secret services force. It was reported that the secret service men who have served Presidents Rocsevelt and Tafe will be Presidents Roosevelt and Taft will be reserved by President Wilson, Weather Forecaster Sloan, L. C. Wheeler and R. L. Javis have traveled thousands of miles as Does Not Give Fair protectors of chief executives and experienced many thrilling adventures

COMPLETE

Last Nomination Awaits
Signing of Labor Bureau By Taft

Washington, March 4.-President Wilson's cabinet is complete and it town, calling on them to "come out remains only to formally send the and fight in American fashion and not ominations to the senate, either to- like pigs." day if the ceremonies permit, or else

Until actually nominated, the list is mofficial, but the list is definitely acepted to be as follows: Secretary of state—William Jen-ings Brynn of Nebraska Treasury-William G, McAdoo o War-Lindley M. Garrison of New

Attorney general-James McReynolds of Tennessee. Postmaster general-Albert Burleson of Texas. Navy-Josephus Daniels of North Carolina. Interior-Franklin K. Lane of Call-

Agriculture-David A. Houston of Commerce-Representative William Redfield of New York. Labor-Representative William B.

Wilson of Pennsylvania. The last nomination is subject to the signing of the bill creating that

WHITE HOUSE MRS. WILSON

Washington, Mar. 4.—The White reserved for them in the senate gal- Delafield, Wis., and Harvard Military ident-elect Wilson and the two shook reading of his address. Although he hours of the Tait administration to Jessie Wilson lavender broadcloth and States.

liss Eleanor Wilson a bright blue oth dress. At 11:30 o'clock committees from he house and senate waited on Presdent Taft in the marble room and ave formal notification that congress cas ready to adjourn. Neither Mrs. aft nor any other member of the resident's family occupied the space eserved for them in the senate gal-eries, or on the stand at the east Mrs. Taft Awaits Husband Mrs. Taft and her daughter went to he home of Miss Mabel Boardman o await the coming of Mr. Taft after he inauguration ceremonies hey all were to depart for Augusta

At 11:45 o'clock Vice darshall, accompanied by the inaugtration committee, was ushered into he senate chamber and given a seat the front row, facing the presiding

Mrs. Marshall Present.

Mrs. Marshall, from her place in ne of the galleries, accompanied by liss Carolina Howland of Indianapois, waved to her husband as he came on the senate floor, but after a stay of a moment Mr. Marshall and the committee returned to the vice presient's room, while Senator Fall inued his filibuster on the Indian bill. All eyes were upon the ten chairs on the senate floor which were alloted to President Wilson's cabinet. Josephus Daniels and William G. Mc doo were the first to take seats

William J. Bryan and Franklin K Lane then held a brief reception and each took a chair in the "cabinet Representative Redfield enter d the chamber a moment later and to talk with the evident purpose of preventing the sundry civil bill from oming to a vote, the house of repre entatives, in a long line outside the enate door, impatiently awaited en-The diplomatic corps in full y, with Mr. Poindexter still speaking, house was announced and filed It looked as though there could e no vote. The measure was finally taken up for a vote. President Taft's veto characterized it as "class legislation of the most vicious sort."

After a fillbuster by Senator Poin-dexter it appeared that the attempt to repass the bill in the senate would

(Continued on Page Eleven.)

Rigid Censorship in Force —32 Wounded Americans Brought to Manila

Manila, March 4 - The town of Jolo as undergone incessant attack by Moros for the last two weeks. That the fighting has been serious is obvious from the arrival here today of 32 wounded Americans. The Moros, it is said, constantly fling taunts to the defenders of the

The troops are chafing greatly at

CONGRESS

Washington, March 4 .- Senate:

Convened at 9:30 a. m. Considered conference report on Indian appropriation bill. Attempt to repass sundry civil bill ver President Taft's veto failed. Thomas R. Marshall of Indiana was sworn in as vice president. Thirty new or returning senators ere sworn in.

Senators Robinson of Arkansas and Adjourned sine die at 12:36 o'clock. House:

Convened at 9:30 a. m Repassed sundry civil bill over presdent's veto, 270 to 50. Adjourned sine die at 12:05 p. m.

TWO SCHOOLS TIE FOR CHAMPIONSHIP

Washington, Mar. 3.-The matches in the military school rifle Mother and Daughters of victories for the Bordentown, N. Cynosure of All Eyes J. military institute in the Eastern league. The Wentworth military in Galleries first in the Western league. John's school, Manlius, N. Y., Washington, March 4.—Mrs. Wilson ed second in the eastern division, and her daughters entered the places and the St. John's military academy,